The Lynn Continuum of Care is a coalition of non-profit organizations in the City of Lynn working together as a collaborative team to end homelessness and to connect individuals and families including unaccompanied youth, with mainstream resources - allowing them to move into and maintain stable, permanent housing.

The Annual Meeting will include the vote in of 2 open Board of Directors positions – 1 Board-at-Large & 1 consumer, who will be voted in for a two-year term. In addition, the CoC will present the Beacon of Hope Award to an individual who has demonstrated exemplary service and dedication to those who are homeless and impoverished in our community. There will be updates from within the homeless system, ESG funding, and updates from standing committees.
